HUMANITIES Course Credit Outline

For this course the student must learn to research, record, relate, and report what has been learned by using the following outline:

- 1. Select to study: 3 Artists, 3 Composers, and 3 Poets.
- 2. Obtain: 5 samples each of their individual works.
- 3. Obtain: a photo copy of an image (picture portrait or sketch) of each Artist, Composer, and Poet chosen and being studied (a total of 9 photos or pictures).
- 4. Write in your own words a one-full page, biographical sketch of each Artist, Composer, and Poet chosen for study. (This information may be taken from an encyclopedia or the Internet.) There must be 9 biographical sketches in all!
- 5. Select 1 Artist, 1 Composer, and 1 Poet of the three (3) which have been studied and read a biography or autobiography of each. Write 1 theme paper essay of 350-500 words on each book read for a total of 3 essays. (These essays may be used to count toward the 9 required for any given VCS high school year.)
- 6. Putting it altogether you will need to write a “cover sheet,” which will be the 1st page placed in a folder (with center clasps) or a 3-ring binder. Place in the middle-center of the page the following:
HUMANITIES
(Your Name)
(Your School Grade Level)
(High School Year in which to receive credit)
Victory Christian Satellite Schools

The 2nd page in your folder or binder will be the “Table of Contents” and should be typed as follows:

1. ARTISTS (list in your outline alphabetically)
 - A. (Picture portrait of artist)
 1. (Biographical sketch)
 2. (5 samples of work)

Repeat the same outline as above for the Composer (e.g. Roman numeral ‘II’) and Poets (Roman number ‘III’).

- The very last page of your project must contain a bibliography of all resources used for research.
- Type them alphabetically with name of author, or resource, year published or retrieved, publishing house or web site, and finally name of book or article.
- All pages of HUMANITIES theme book must be numbered at the top, right-hand corner of each page, except for cover sheet, table of contents and bibliography.

IMPORTANT: To receive credit, the completed project must be mailed to Victory Christian Satellite Schools, LLC, 6191 SW County Rd. 344, Trenton, Florida 32693.

NOTE: If student wishes to gain credit for the 9 essays / book reports written, then all 9 need to be included when mailing in Humanities project.
